

Fly Away

1:24am          can't sleep

you said      let me know your thoughts

always have always will

love you

the pain I feel      letting      you go and

I must

so you can fly free

the flying of          my mother

five years after

divorce

I have cried

can't sleep

o c e a n s      o f      t e a r s

always have
